

RESTRICTED

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
INTELLIGENCE REPORT

25X1A

F10 508

COUNTRY China

DATE:

SUBJECT Political Information: Newspapers and Radio Stations in Communist Areas, Manchuria

INFO.

25X1C

DIST. 9 January 1947

PAGES 2

SUPPLEMENT

25X1

ORIGIN

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 19 March 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008

25X1A

DISTRIBUTION

				X	X
STATE	WAR	NAVY	JUSTICE	R & E	C & D

SOURCE

25X1

1. Broadcasting Stations:

- a. Lungching (129-26,42-47) None
- b. Tumen (129-49,42-58) None, serviced by Yenchi. (129-31,42-55)
- c. Antu (128-22,42-34) Previously had a station; equipment removed by Soviets.
- d. Mutanchiang (129-37,44-35) None
- e. Peian (126-22,48-14) Station exists, but is not in operation.
- f. Tsitsihar Two sources say there is a station, one commenting that it broadcasts in Chinese and Russian; the other that it broadcasts for local transmission only. One source says there is no station at present, but one is planned.

25X1X

2. Newspapers:

- a. Lungching Both Chinese and Korean newspapers.
- b. Tumen 8th Route Army newspaper called Tung Pei Jih Pao; Korean and Chinese newspapers.
- c. Antu Populace reads the Chinese Communist newspaper, Yen Pien, printed in Yenchi.
- d. Hunchun (130-22,42-52) A Chinese Communist newspaper.

Document No. 9 e. Mutanchiang

NO CHANGE in Class. ☐

DECLASSIFIED

Class. CHANGED TO: IS S C

DDA Memo, 4 Apr 77

Auth: DDA REG. 77/1263

The Mutanchiang Daily News, published by the Communists. There is a Japanese Weekly put out by the Japanese United Democratic Association.

25X1A

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

25X1A

-2-

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

f. Peian

There are two Chinese newspapers: the Tung Pei Jih Pao and the Heiho Provincial Newspaper. There is also a Japanese newspaper the Victory News. [redacted] the news in it is "half-true".

25X1

g. Tsitsihar

[redacted] mention the Nenchiang Jih Pao. Two of the sources state it is a Communist paper; the third implies that it is not. The latter mentions the SocialDemocratic News, which he says is Communist. There is also a Japanese Communist in the Foreign Affairs Section of the Communist administration there. The editor is HAYASHI Inoue (林井上).

25X1

h. Wangyehmiao (122-01, 46-05)

There are two newspapers: the People's News, published in Wangyehmiao, and the Victory News published at Taonan (122-47, 45-21).

-2-

~~RESTRICTED~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~